MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. N. Redlich

August 4, 1964

FROM: Mr. R. Mosk

Somewhere, the misconception has arisen that Oswald was given an honorable discharge from the Marine Corps and then later given an Undesirable discharge from the Marine Reserves. The fact is that he was relieved from active duty from the Marine Corps with the notation "honorable". He was discharged from the Marines only once and that was designated as an "Undesirable Discharge." See Folsom Exh. 1.
